The bill requires the court to consider loss of revenue as part of a restitution order for rental property theft. It will minimally increase state workload beginning in FY 2021-22.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation is required.

Fiscal Note Status: This fiscal note reflects the enacted bill.

Summary of Legislation

This bill requires the court to consider loss of revenue as part of any restitution order when a person is convicted for theft of rental property.

State Expenditures

Workload in the Judicial Department will increase by a minimal amount to make determinations on restitution and to collect restitution on behalf victims. The increase in workload can be accomplished within existing appropriations.

Local Government

To the extent that the bill increases the length of hearings to determine restitution, workload to district attorney offices will increase. Similar to the state, the Denver County Court will have a minimal increase in workload to make determinations and collect restitution.

Effective Date

This bill was signed into law by the Governor and took effect on May 27, 2021, and applies to any offense committed on or after this date.
